SIR,

Inspection of uncertified Poor Schools and Institutions - your letter No.F.128-35/R.O.I dated 18th January 1935.

The Inspector of Schools, who was consulted in the matter, reports that St. Mary's Home, Kensington Road and the Mohamedan Orphanage, Dickenson Road, may be classed under section 17 of the Madras Children Act. The former is an Institution for poor European and Anglo-Indian Protestant girls and the latter is intended for Mohamedan orphans. Neither of these institutions receive any Government grant; they are supported by voluntary contributions and the latter also by a grant from the Municipal Commission. They are not inspected by the Inspector of Schools.

There are no other institutions in the Station that could be classed under this section.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
